WARDROBE

Be sure to review the enclosed wardrobe checklist to be fully prepared for all of the weekend events. Do not bring valuables and remember we are not responsible for lost articles.

POSTERS

A long-standing tradition during pageant weekend is to put up posters and signs of support for the contestants. Due to the unique style of the Embassy Suites hotel, their atrium allows for posters to be hung, which creates excitement and draws attention to our contestants. (NOTE: This is not required.) If this is something that you want to do, VistaPrint or Costco, among other places can make them for you. To attach, bring appropriate hanging materials (rope works best) that will not damage the hotel, or stop by the front desk, they will have what you need.

SCHEDULE

With an event of this caliber and magnitude, it is imperative that our Fantasy Campers be responsible and follow the leadership of our amazing Fantasy Camp Coordinator Marley Stokes, accompanied by our reigning titleholders. Please be respectful to your coordinators, and listen to their suggestions and directions so that you are always where you need to be, and on time.

Please review the enclosed fantasy camp schedule for your planning and preparation. We will also include one in your registration package. And remember, whoever is awarded the Photogenic and Congeniality awards on Friday night will bring a parent with them to the Finals on Saturday evening to watch them present the Photogenic and Congeniality awards to our Miss and Teen recipients on stage.
